ABOUT KALEYewa HOUSE

Growing old is not a disease, but a natural process. However, the growth in the population of older people and their living conditions in a country where 63% of its population live in multi-dimensional poverty, should concern us all. Poverty and exclusion have been documented as the greatest threats to the well-being of older people.

Kaleywa House is a non-profit and non-governmental organisation founded in 2001. It began operations in 2003 to mark the one year anniversary of the founders's death.

Kaleyewa House is focused on improving the welfare of elders in Nigeria by promoting family and community care, through advocacy, education, training and support services.

Our mission is to promote the care and nurture of Nigerian senior citizens.

Our vision is a society where elders lead a dignified and respectable life in their old age.

Kaleyewa supports the elderly (those over 75) in Iju and Itagbolu communities, Akure North Local Government Area of Ondo State, with raw food, medical care and house rent for those that have to pay for their accommodation.

At Kaleywa House (KH), we are passionate about our work and we are committed to making old age a time of activity, joy, hope and peace.

SUMMARY

In 2022, forty-four (44) elders (75 years and above) in the two communities were approved at the January Board meeting and added to the 411 existing beneficiaries making a total of 455 KH Elders. By December 31st, there were 433 KH Elders as 21 elders (18 female and 3 male) had died, and 1 underage elder had been removed.

KH covered the three usual areas: food distribution, medicare and, in one case, money to pay house rent. The additional component of counselling and health education, which started in 2015, was included during medicare and food distribution.

As in the preceding years, there were 3 food distributions for all elders, 3 additional distributions for vulnerable elders, and six medical interventions in each community. Vulnerable elders are those who are above 90 or immobile. The 2022 schedule is Appendix 1.

The tradition of an annual Christmas/New Year Party which started in 2009 also continued. The 2022 New Year Party was held on Saturday, January 29th. The report is provided as Appendix 2.
